“Transitioning Students with IEPs to Middle School”

When?	Monday, March 22, 2010, 7-9 p.m.
Where?	Kelly Leadership Center 14715 Bristow Road Manassas, VA 20112
Who Should Attend?	Parents of students receiving special education services or those with a suspected disability

Presenters :

- Carol April, Administrative Coordinator for the Program for Students with Emotional Disturbance/Learning Disabilities, PWCS
- Ann Neri, Chairperson of the Special Education Department, Lake Ridge Middle School
- Special education teachers from the PWCS’ Program for Students with Autism and the Program for Students with Intellectual Disabilities

This workshop will help parents of students with disabilities understand the “middle school concept and culture” so they can better prepare their student for the transition to middle school. Topics to be addressed will include: increased student responsibility, behavioral and academic expectations, IEP services, schedules and class changes, organizational strategies, socialization, and more. There will be two breakout sessions to address issues pertinent to students following the Standards of Learning (SOL) and students following the Aligned Standards of Learning (ASOL).

- Pre-registration is required. Students are welcome to attend with a parent.
- To pre-register, call the Parent Resource Center at 703.791.8846 or email johnsope@pwcs.edu or bamaher@pwcs.edu by Friday, March 19, 2010.
